UPE/ACM STUDENT CHAPTER SCHOLARSHIP AWARD APPLICATION

Upsilon Pi Epsilon
Honor Society for the Computing & Information Disciplines

&

Association for Computing Machinery (ACM)
the First Society in Computing

UPE and the ACM wish to encourage academic excellence for students in the computing and information disciplines. UPE initiated this award with ACM I order to raise the importance of academic achievement and professional commitment to ACM student members who are about to enter the computing profession.

Who is Eligible? All graduate and undergraduate students (past 12th grade, college-level and above), who are ACM members and also members of the ACM Student Chapter at their academic institution. An applicant must be enrolled or registered as a regular student when awards are announced in Fall 2018.

Criteria? ACM student members who are full-time students, and members of an ACM Student Chapter at an academic institution. The primary judging categories for these two awards are the applicant's academic records (official transcripts must be attached to each application), the tone of the faculty member's recommendation, and the applicant's department-related activities. Questions related to these awards can be directed to Ms. Sunita Juswal at the ACM Headquarters (local_activities@hq.acm.org)

How to Apply? Complete the following form, and mail it, along with the items listed below to:
