

UPE ACM STUDENT CHAPTER SCHOLARSHIP AWARD APPLICATION

Upsilon Pi Epsilon
Honor Society for the Computing Sciences

ACM
the First Society in Computing

The Executive Council of Upsilon Pi Epsilon (UPE) and the Membership Activities Board of ACM wishes to encourage academic excellence for students in the computing discipline. The UPE initiated this award with ACM, the world's oldest and largest educational and scientific International computing society, to raise the importance of academic achievement and professional commitment in our future computer professionals. Up to two awards of $1,000 each are given from UPE each year to competition winners. Winners will also receive a certificate of commendation.

Who is Eligible? All graduate and undergraduate students (past 12th grade, college-level and above), who are ACM members and members of the ACM Student Chapter at their academic institution.

Criteria? ACM members who are full-time students, and members of an ACM Student Chapter at an academic institution, are expected to be in the top 5% of their contemporaries on a course leading to recognition in the IT profession. (In the US this would equate to a GPA above 3.5)
